Q.C.F.S.C. TEST INFORMATION AND POLICIES

1. Test skater must be a member of the United States Figure Skating and have passed prerequisite tests.
2. Skater's coach must be certified by U.S.F.S. (Certification through N.C.S.I.)
3. Test application must be filled in completely and fees must accompany application in order to be accepted.
4. Return application and fees to your coach at least 14 days prior to test date. Thirty (30) day notice by telephone or email to test chairman is required for any Junior, Senior, Gold or International test.
5. Test fees are non-refundable after submittal. Credit may be given for serious circumstances beyond skater's control. Notice to test chairman and statement of reason are required as soon as possible. Credit must be used within the next two (2) test sessions. Test Application must be re-submitted for credit use.
6. QCFSC Members may be asked to bring food for judge's meal and can receive a hospitality fee discount.
7. Additional fees: Unusual circumstances may require additional fees due to increased expenses for prime time ice, judges' transportation, or lodging. Skater may also have expenses due to partner and/or practice ice fees.
8. Late applications accepted on conditional basis - $15 late fee will apply after posted due date.
9. Skater must be in the rink and ready to test at least thirty minutes before their scheduled warm-up time.
10. Non-member tests accepted conditionally with home club permission letter submitted with application.

Non-member Fees:

$25.00 for first test - Pre-Pre through Novice MIF, FS and Pair; Pre-Pre through Pre-Gold Dance
$5 for each additional test

$30.00 for first test - Junior, Senior MIF, FS, Pair, Gold and International Dance
$10 for each additional upper-level test, $5 for each additional lower-level test.
